If abandoned, applicant may request refund or credit to a specified Deposit Account.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 6 is and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lane, U. S. Patent 2,170,147.

4. Lane teaches a stickers a face stock layer or label formed from transparent cellophane (column 3, lines 64-69) and having a first side and a second side; and visible indicia selectively screen printed to one or more portions of at least one of the first and second sides of the face stock layer (column 2, lines 70-74); wherein the label is divisible into individual sheets and disposed in a cut-and- stack configuration to render said individual sheets capable of application to a container by automated labeling machines (page 2, lines 35-49).

5. With respect to claim 10, Lane teaches a label disposed on container or package of apparel, crockery, glassware or the like. The label comprising: a face stock layer comprising cellophane( page 3, lines 64-69) and having a first side and a second side, visible indicia selectively screen printed to one or more portions of at least one of the sides of the face stock layer, and an adhesive layer 11 applied to the second side of the face stock layer; wherein the label is divisible into individual sheets and disposed in a cut- and-stack configuration to render the individual sheets capable of application to a container by automated labeling machines.

6. Since the applicant does not positively recite the labeling machine in combination with the label, the label taught by Lane is considered to be capable of application to a container by a labeling machine.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 1-5, 7-9, and 12-13 allowed.
8. Claims 11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
